MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, January 18, 1753.

MISS,

THE Charms with which Heaven has bleſſed you, while they delight the Eye, make me tremble for you hereafter.——Beauty has often been the Rock on which Virtue has ſplit, when Care has not been taken to enrich the Mind with Means to protect it in all the Changes of Life. ——A ſplendid Fortune is ever attended by Luxury, whoſe Companion is Coquetry.——The Adoration of the Men, and their perpetual Flatteries to our Sex, are often too pleaſing to our Vanity; and, by liſtening to a Number, the Heart is uncertain in it's Determination, and one inſenſibly gives up to a Crowd that Reputation we fear to truſt with one ſingle Perſon, and which ought to be dearer to us than one's Life. Again, Poverty, Misfortunes, and a Life imbittered by continual Vexations, are no leſs fatal to Virtue; ſuch a Woman is apt to make Uſe of her Beauty to ſubdue her Enemies,—and to procure her Friends in Time of Need;—ſhe meets, 'tis probable, with dangerous Conſolers; and her Honour becomes a Sacrifice to Gratitude.

To prevent theſe diſaſterous Accidents, Wiſdom is the only Means: but endeavour to be Wiſe without Affectation. Wiſdom does not require ſo much outward Shew as inward Severity.——Be prudent without being a Prude: Let your Modeſty be accompanied with Gaiety, and your neceſſary Reſerve with Good Nature.——Apply yourſelf to learn what will adorn your Mind, but be not vain in your own Conceit.——Let your Philoſophy be Chriſtian. ——Be affable and obliging to all; intimate but with few.——Pity the Misfortunes which you are in no Proſpect of feeling.——Behave without too much Submiſſion to your Equals; and without Pride to your Inferiors.——Be always ready to comfort the Diſtreſſed of all Conditions.——Do nothing but what is worthy of Praiſe, without aiming at Applauſe; the Oſtentation of a good Action often eclipſes the Glory, which it would otherwiſe deſerve.

If you ſhall hereafter be bleſſed with a good Huſband, endeavour to make the Bleſſing permanent by your Love, Virtue, and a generous Confidence. But, ſhould your Lot be ſo unhappy as to have your Mind torn and diſtracted with the Agonies of domeſtic Jars, look out for Friends, who have a greater Regard for your Virtue than your Beauty; and, if by that Means you get no Relief, ſeek it from him who alone can extricate us out of the deepeſt Diſtreſs. In Patience poſſeſs your Soul.——If you love your Huſband paſſionately, and he is ungrateful enough not to make ſuitable Returns to your Tenderneſs, endeavour to conquer his ill Humour with Mildneſs, Complaiſance, and a blameleſs Conduct: For, be aſſured, Jealouſy, Sullenneſs, a peeviſh Melancholy, or continual Reproaches and Brawlings, will never regain a Heart liable to wandering.——If the Match be diſproportionate, and your Huſband happens to be very agreeable in his Humour, but the contrary in his Perſon, never ceaſe endeavouring to conquer your Diſlike, and remember the Beauties of the Mind are moſt amiable.——And, if you chance to be equally indifferent to each other, let not that draw you into any Irregularities: Shun the Opportunities of finding in another the Charms that are wanting in your Huſband; and permit the Force of Duty to ſupply the Defects of Love. It is in ſuch Circumſtances as theſe, that it is difficult to preſerve one's Virtue; but then it is at theſe Times, that it is moſt requiſite, and it appears with greater Luſtre.

A Woman perfectly happy, who is not wanting in her Duty, is eſteemed, without being praiſed; becauſe, having no Complaint, ſhe has no Pretence for doing otherwiſe. But a Woman that is unfortunate and wiſe, ſeems to exceed even Expectation. ——The Virgin or the Widow State alſo ſeems to me as much or more expoſed to Danger. A young Woman left without Father or Mother, and entirely Miſtreſs of her Actions, cannot be too circumſpect in them.——She takes no Step without endangering her Reputation; if ſhe keeps a great deal of Company, ſhe's immediately ſtigmatized with the Name of a Coquette; if ſhe confines herſelf to the Converſation of a few ſelect Friends, ſhe's ſuſpected of carrying on ſome private Intrigue.

If you marry, and are left a Widow, avoid the Example of thoſe Women, who think, becauſe they have Nobody to whom they are obliged to be accountable for what they do, they may with Safety abandon themſelves to an irregular Conduct, believing, that under the Umbrage of their Crape, they may conceal the looſe Inclinations of their Hearts.——A Widow ought to be more nice in her Behaviour, than either a Wife or a Maid. The State ſhe has paſſed through ſhould make her obſerve a greater Decorum, ſince ſhe ought to reſume the Modeſty and Innocence of a Maid, with the Knowlege of a Wife: Wiſdom muſt be her inſeparable Guide, or ſhe will be liable to Cenſure, and expoſed to the greateſt Dangers in the Cauſe of Virtue.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman of Credit in the County of Monaghan, in Ireland, dated July 22.

THERE was a Glaſslough Man, who lately got ſo ſevere a Beating in Monaghan, from ſeveral Perſons, that his Life was deſpaired of, and all the Phyſicians and Surgeons could do, he did not make one Drop of Water for ten Days, and his Belly was ſo much ſwelled, that they thought every Hour would be his laſt; but the poor Man fell into a little Slumber, and dreamed (or as he ſaid, ſaw a Viſion, which told him, that if he would drink a Bottle of Tuthill (the Parſon's) Ale, and bathe in a certain Lough of Glaſslough, he would immediately make Water. The Man told his Viſion to Tuthill, Dr. Collin, and ſeveral others, and ſaid, if he did what he was told, he was ſure he would recover, upon which they left him to purſue his Dream. He was carried to the Place, drank the Ale, went into the Water, and there he did make Water, and in 24 Hours made 26 Quarts of Urine, and is recovering every Day ſince. This Story is very odd, but very true.

KINGSTON, in Jamaica, October 14.

Yeſterday —— Doxin ſtood in the Pillory, from 10 to 11 o'Clock, purſuant to his Sentence, for Clipping Shears and other Inſtruments for the demoliſhing of Coin, being found in his Cuſtody, as alſo ſome Clippings.

Yeſterday about 11 o'Clock in the Forenoon, John Brown, late an Attorney at Law in this Iſland, was executed purſuant to his Sentence laſt Grand Court, for the Crime of Forgery: He died very obſtinate, without making the leaſt Confeſſion.

October 28. We are informed by one Mr. Davis, who was coming Paſſenger from Philadelphia, in the Brigantine Richmond, Capt. Rees, and brought here from Turks Iſland by Captain Bethel, of the Sloop John, from New York; that meeting with a ſevere Gale of Wind on the 23d of September laſt, off the Eaſt Side of Turks Iſland, their Veſſel was beat almoſt to Pieces, and they with Difficulty, in the Long Boat, reach'd ſaid Iſland. Likewiſe Capt. Middleton, in a Sloop from hence for Bermuda, ſhar'd the ſame Fate, and whom he left on ſaid Iſland. There were ſeveral Guns of Diſtreſs heard in the Night, which they apprehended were fir'd by Veſſels that might be in their Condition. The Storm continued from one o'Clock in the Morning 'til five the next Evening, inſomuch that there was a large Bank of the Eaſt Side of the Iſland intirely waſh'd away by the Sea and Rain.

NEWPORT, in Rhode Iſland, November 16.

On Wedneſday Night laſt, was caſt away nigh our Beach, on a Rock called Cormorant Rock, a Sloop belonging to Boſton, one Gordon, Maſter, from the Weſt Indies, and all the People periſh'd, ſaving two Foremaſt Men, named —— Emerſon, and —— Miller: The Veſſel and Cargo it is thought will be intirely loſt: One of the Men with great Difficulty got aſhore upon a Piece of the Quarter Deck of the Sloop about 3 o'Clock in the Morning; the other was waſh'd upon the Rock, where he remain'd until the next Day Evening before he could be taken off, the Wind and Sea being ſo high: The Method they were obliged to take was by going off in a Whale Boat, and as they could not go nigh the Rock they threw him a Rope which he faſtened to him, and throwing himſelf into the Water got into the Boat. The Men pretty much bruiſed, but in good Spirits.

NEW-YORK.

December 4. On Monday the 13th of laſt Month, the Schooner Charming Peggy, Alexander Sloan, Maſter, bound in here from Cape Fear, with 237 Barrels of Tar on board, was drove aſhore in a violent Gale of Wind at Eaſt, on the Out Side of Sandy Hook: The Veſſel loſt, but the Men and Cargo ſaved: The Captain afterwards hired ſome ſmall Veſſels to bring up the Cargo to this City, and arrived with it laſt Week.

Capt. Sloan informs us, that they have had abundance of Rain at Cape-Fear, in the Months of September and October laſt, which occaſioned ſuch great Freſhes as never were known there before; and which not only overflowed their common low Land, but much of their higher alſo, ruined all their Crops, and drowned and carried away much Cattle: That the Price of all Proviſions was much riſen, Indian Corn being, when he left it, upwards of Four Shillings Sterling per Buſhel.

He alſo informs us, that about five Weeks ago, there was an Inſurrection of the Negroes at Cape-Fear, which greatly alarmed the Inhabitants; but by good Providence, they were happily quell'd before any great Damage was done.

PHILADELPHIA, November 30.

Monday laſt a Court of Oyer and Terminer was held at Cheſter, when Thomas Kelly and James Rice, were brought to the Bar, and indicted for the Murder of John Thomas and Eleanor Davis; to which Kelly pleaded Guilty, but Rice Not Guilty: The Court then proceeded with his Trial, and the Jury in a few Minutes, returned their Verdict Guilty.

Rice, in going to Cheſter laſt Saturday, attempted to make his Eſcape from thoſe that had the Care of him: The Sheriff and his Officers, it ſeems (not imagining he would attempt to get away, being hand-cuffed) were all a little Way before him, except one Man; which he took the Advantage of, and pretending he wanted to eaſe Nature, got Leave to go over a Fence or Hedge; upon which he endeavoured to get off his Hand-cuffs, but could not, and then ſet a running as faſt as he could. The Man that was with him ſurpriz'd, and getting off his Horſe haſtily, ſome how entangled himſelf, and fell down, by which Rice got ſome Diſtance from him; however he recovered himſelf, and purſu'd, and luckily Rice happened to fall, ſo that he came up with and ſecur'd him.

Yeſterday Daniel Hurley was executed here purſuant to his Sentence.
